ON WITH THE SHOW

Among actors, there is a traditional slogan that no "trooper" ever forgets. It is, "THE SHOW MUST GO ON." Regardless of what suddenly happens behind stage, the curtain must go up on time and the "show must go on." Many a gripping story of the heroism of actors has been told: we recall that Lillian Roth had a telegram shoved into her hand some months ago just as she went before the footlights to sing "He Was My Man." The telegram told of the sudden death of her fiance! The tears were real as the "show went on" and she sang—with her heart breaking—"He Was My Man."

Among us of the newspaper profession, there is also a traditional slogan, that overshadows all else. It is, "THE PRESSES MUST ROLL ON TIME." Regardless of breakdowns, and machinery is often cranky; regardless of whether the office is on fire, there is a death in the family, an earthquake, or sheriff with judgement at the door—"THE PRESSES MUST ROLL." It is the spirit and idealism of the great new disburning craft of the world—regardless of what happens—"THE PRESSES MUST ROLL."

Doubtless, other professions have similar slogans. They are thrilling, noble and call forth the finest that is in one.

WHY CAN'T AMERICA HAVE SUCH A SLOGAN JUST NOW? In 1917 we went to war, to "Make the world safe for Democracy." In 1933, let's go to war—"FOR THE AMERICAN STANDARD OF LIVING!"

Patriotism is at a high pitch right now. People are united—with one purpose—the fight on the depression. There has seldom in American history been a greater opportunity for leadership. And sincerely, we believe that the leader we need is now getting his mail at, "Washington, D. C. care of, The White House."

Since the World War ended, we've had SELFISHNESS, GREED, JUNKERISM and NATIONAL DRIFTING. But they are not the proper adjectives to use when describing the national character of America. Thank God, no. That's why we are right now beginning a new social and economic revolution We're getting back to: "LIFE, LIBERTY AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS"—the Bill of Rights, Equality, Opportunity and Progress.

Banks will reopen this week. But the depression will not be over this week. That is something that will depend upon the degree to which we are able to maintain the new spirit that has been aroused over the nation since March 4. That's why we suggest national recognition of the existence of a state of war—To Maintain the American Standard of Living.

IN 1917 WE KEPT GOING UNTIL THE ENLMY WAS COWERING IN DEFEAT. IN 1917 WE BECAME THE WORLD'S FINEST FIGHTING MACHINE AND FOUGHT WITH THE FURY REMINESCENT OF PICKETT'S CHARGE AND THE GALLANTRY OF JEB STUART—UNTIL THE STARS AND STRIPES FLOATED PROUDLY IN VICTORY.

CAN WE DO LESS IN 1933?

All of which sounds pretty good—because it is vague and general. Hillaire Belloc once wrote that a speaker in any parliament is sure of deafening applause when he pleads for economy—in general. But let him get specific and cut at the members pet patronages—and he is a radical—fanatic and dangerous man!

What are you willing to do to restore the integrity of the American Standard of Living?

In 1917 you in Appomattox county were willing to lay down the cash to buy $648,000 worth of liberty and victory bonds and savings stamps. That's what you did then — to "Make the world safe for Democracy." But, how about 1933? You may not have as much cash to lay on the national mart now as you did then. But are you willing to get in behind the President's plans for a NEW DEAL and do the things you wish the big bankers and big centers of wealth would do (Come, come, you know what I mean—PUT MONEY INTO CIRCULATION.)

One town or one county can't do much so much. But, MY, MY WHAT 120,000,000 FOLKS LIKE YOU AND I CAN DO. BY HECK, IN 1917 WE COULD HAVE LIFTED CHATEAU THIERRY AND CHUNKED IT DOWN THE CONSARNED THROAT OF THOSE BLANK, BLANK HUNS. We are that way! We were so wrought up we crossed 3,000 miles of water with 3,000,000 men and enough food and money to take care of the world—and if Foch hadn't stopped us, those doughboys would have been chasing the BOCHE yet.

A NEW DEAL—a WAR ON DEPRESSION!
Get out the SERVICE FLAG of 1933—a deposit slip.

LETS GO TO THE RECRUITING STATION IN 1933 AND THEN TO THE FRONT FOR ACTION. Something tells me that ONCE AGAIN THE STARS AND STRIPES WILL FLOAT PROUDLY IN ANOTHER GREATER HOUR OF VICTORY AND THOSE WHO MARCHED IN THE LINE WILL PARADE BACK WHILE THE BAND PLAYS "HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN" AND THESE FORTY-EIGHT STATES WILL HAVE BEEN MADE SAFE FOR THE NEW AMERICAN STANDARD OF LIVING.

The New York Times points out that in addition to the restricted services banks can now perform—you can set your watch by the bank clock—as formerly.

A boat is something that takes you from one bank to another. What we need is something to make us stick by the banks we've got.

The banks closed on 3-4-33 (March 4, 1933) which adds up to be 13. Reserve banks reopened on the thirteenth. But don't let yourself think this new deal is from the bottom of the deck. And even if it is—that's perhaps where the good cards have been.

And don't let us forget that this is the anniversary of the famous blizzard of 1888!

Grown in Measure

The editor of this paper has through the months watched the steps by which John Garland Pollard has "grown in measure." Frankly, upon his elevation to the governorship, we settled down saying, "Well, he can't be the governor Harry Byrd was, but Byrd left us policies to carry through."

The first year of his term was marked by little outstanding, and the people resented such really small mistakes as the release of Lynwood Bottom. Eastern Virginians didn't like his seafood policy, etc.

But John Garland Pollard has grown in measure. Last week he sat as chairman of the national conference of governors in Washington. It was a personal tribute to him and the splendid administration he has given Virginia.

The boldness and consistency with which he has followed the ideal of a balanced budget, the courage with which he has combatted depression and left Virginia through in as much better shape than most other states and his genius for administrative leadership, have placed him virtually on a par with Byrd as a governor. And the lovable personality of the man . . . his fondness for quoits or horse-shoe pitching, his booklet on connotry, the grace and ease he brings to a social occasion—all have endeared him to the people.

We don't know who will be the next governor of Virginia. But we do know that over the last decade we have been blessed with outstanding state executives.

Black-Draught

Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught takes three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Celebrates Sixty-Second Birthday

Birthday Party

On Saturday evening, March 11, Mr. W. C. Cheatham, of Lynchburg, celebrated his sixty-second birthday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Anna Moore, near here. At six o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room, where a delicious dinner was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Whorley, of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whorley, Mrs. W. C. Brown and Miss Clarice Moore, of Lynchburg; Mrs. T. H. Burge and daughters, Elizabeth and Ola, of Beckham; Mrs. E. D. Jennings and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jennings and daughters, Eleanor and Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carson, Prof. J. G. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs J. Owen Carson and Miss Alva Moore. Music furnished entertainment for the evening, and 10:30 P. M. refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, lemondade and oranges.

Cheatham received many nice and useful presents. Every one left after spending a very enjoyable evening, wishing him many more happy birthdays.

Warning

Don't be misled by false statements. Calomel, salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills and drugs have no effect whatever on the liver or its production of bile. The truth of this statement can be proved by consulting the authoritative medical textbooks published during the past five years.

There are only two known substances which will actually stimulate a torpid or sluggish liver to clean and purify itself by increasing the production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of these substances, and no other advertised medicine on the American market today does contain them.—(adv.)

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."
